An Act to amend the Pauper Children (Ireland) Act, 1898.

A.D. 1902.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

5      1. In the Pauper Children (Ireland) Act, 1898,—

(a) In the case of a legitimate child, the expression "orphan child" shall mean a child, both of whose parents are dead, or one of whose parents is dead, the other being under sentence of penal servitude, or suffering permanently from mental disease, or being permanently bedridden or disabled and an inmate of a workhouse, or being out of Ireland; and the expression "deserted child" shall mean a child deserted by both parents, or deserted by one parent, the other being dead, or under sentence of penal servitude, or suffering permanently from mental disease, or being permanently bedridden or disabled and an inmate of a workhouse, or being out of Ireland; or a child, one of whose parents is under sentence of penal servitude, or suffering permanently from mental disease, or is permanently bedridden or disabled and an inmate of a workhouse, or is out of Ireland, the other parent being likewise in one of these conditions; and

(b) In the case of an illegitimate child, the expression "orphan child" shall mean a child whose mother is dead; and the expression "deserted child" shall mean a child deserted by its mother, or whose mother is under sentence
